

“Consider the Source”

A riff on the song, “Consider Yourself,” from Oliver!

Consider the source: who wrote?

Consider the source: who’s the audience?

We’re looking to find a date

It’s clear we need to investigate

Consider the source: from where?

Consider the source: what’s the origin?

If we’re going to trust its voice

If clear, we oughta include word choice.

If it should chance to be

We should find

A question posed

Major questions posed

Why cringe?

Always a chance there’ll be

Somebody who’ll find the truth

Then the source is off the hinge

Consider the source first thing,

We ready to make a fuss

For after some consideration we can say,

Consider the source? but of course!
